

Masculinity & Femininity: Difference and Gift

Presented by Sister Jane Dominic Laurel, O.P., S.T.D. of the Nashville Dominicans and sponsored by

Media and popular culture promote gender confusion.
As Catholics, we know that God created us male and female for a reason. Only by rediscovering our identity as either male or female can we discover the gift of our lives and the genuine happiness that comes from living according to either the masculine or the feminine mode of loving.

~~~~~

The presentation includes a brief session about Aquinas College and also an update from Family Honor on their latest programs, events and resources for parents and children.

Please reserve your seat at one of the following presentations:

Tues. Sept. 24, 7:00 pm, St. Joseph School - Chapel, Greenville, SC
Contact Vincent Weaver at upstatefamilyhonor@yahoo.com

Wed., Sept. 25, 6:00 pm, St. Joseph - Church, Columbia, SC
Meet and greet and desserts afterward in School Gym
Contact Nettie Taylor at stjoedre@aol.com

Sister Jane Dominic Laurel, O.P., is a member of the Saint Cecilia Congregation of Dominican Sisters of Nashville, TN. She holds a Doctorate in Sacred Theology from the Pontifical Univ. of Thomas Aquinas in Rome, Italy, and is an Assist. Prof. of Theology at Aquinas College in Nashville. Sister has been active in her community's teaching apostolate for over fifteen years & assists with the theological formation of the newest members of her religious congregation. Sister has also appeared on EWTN, served as Spiritual Promoter for the Third Order Dominicans, and presented on topics related to theology, religious life, and marriage and family.

