

2018-2019 – Updated Program Options!

Research shows that your child WANTS you to talk to them about sex, love, dating, and other issues – but where to start?

For 30 years, Family Honor has provided a family-centered, Catholic approach to chastity education through our parent-child programs, all designed to help you ‘jump-start’ those important conversations (or respond to challenging questions!)

We provide a unique opportunity for you and your teen to come together PLUS a common language for communication.

Check out our programs below, then contact us to find out how to bring one to your area: 803.929.0858 or info@familyhonor.org
